

Join Air Force ROTC Today

Ten Universities and Colleges Combine into One Great Program!

The University of Akron has a crosstown agreement with Kent State University--Det 630. Typically, this means you'll be enrolled as a full-time student at The University of Akron and take your AFROTC classes each week at Kent State University—Det 630.

Please visit Air Force ROTC Detachment 630 for more information on how to get started.

The Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps (AFROTC), hosted at Kent State University, is an educational program designed to give you an opportunity to become an Air Force or Space Force officer while you complete your college degree. Whether you want to fly the most advanced aircraft in the world, design and operate the latest space systems, and work on the cutting edge of technology, there are more than 100 officer career fields. We're here to get you started.

AFROTC Mission: Develop Leaders of Character for Tomorrow's Air Force and Space Force.
Detachment 630 Mission: Inspire. Motivate. Perform.

Air Force ROTC Detachment 630 is hosted at Kent State University, has been producing officers since 1951 and consists of cadets from the University of Akron, Baldwin Wallace University, Case Western Reserve University, Cleveland State University, the University of Mount Union, Youngstown State University, Hiram College, Ursuline College, Walsh University and Kent State University. Combined, these ten Northeast Ohio higher-education institutions provide an enormous number of majors, options for student life, mentorship, and the opportunity to work with other students across Northeast Ohio. Additionally, students from Cuyahoga Community College, Lakeland Community College, Lorain County Community College, Northeast Ohio Medical University, and Stark State College may also join the program through the Northeast Ohio Regional Higher Education Compact.

National Websites:

The logo for the U.S. Air Force ROTC, featuring a stylized blue winged pilot emblem above the text "U.S. AIR FORCE" and "ROTC" in large, bold, blue capital letters.	Air Force ROTC The official website for all AFROTC, containing great information on the program outline, scholarships and the commissioning process
The official logo of the United States Air Force, featuring a stylized blue winged pilot emblem above the text "U.S. AIR FORCE" in blue capital letters.	The United States Air Force The official site, full of great information on the mission, education, careers and lifestyle of Air Force professionals.
The official logo of the United States Space Force, featuring a circular emblem with a white space shuttle launching from a blue base, surrounded by the text "UNITED STATES SPACE FORCE" and "DEPARTMENT OF THE AIR FORCE".	The US Space Force It's here and growing. Keep up with the latest on the official website!
The logo for the Jeanne M. Holm Center, featuring a shield-shaped emblem with a blue background, a white torch, and the text "HOLM CENTER" at the bottom.	Welcome to the Jeanne M. Holm Center for Officer Accessions & Citizen Development.  Air University
The logo for the Air Force Compliance Division, featuring a stylized blue winged pilot emblem above the text "AIR FORCE COMPLIANCE DIVISION" in white capital letters on a dark blue background.	Freedom of Information Act  Section 508 Compliance  Privacy Act