

3359-20-03.7 Guidelines for initial appointment, reappointment, tenure, and promotion of regular faculty.

Preamble: The purpose of these procedures for reappointment, tenure, and promotion is to promote a process at the university of Akron that is fair, consistent, and faculty-driven. The procedures are designed to define the guidelines under which the faculty members will be working, and to define the procedures and evaluative measures that are part of the process. All reappointment, tenure, and promotion recommendations are seen as a serious measure of the progress of the faculty member and shall serve as clear benchmarks of and suggestions for future progress.

It is understood that the tenure process is cumulative, and not all criteria need be met every reappointment year. However, all criteria must be addressed by the time the faculty member applies for tenure and promotion.

These guidelines strive to establish fair and systematic methods of evaluating faculty members. Detailed criteria and procedures shall be adopted by each academic unit and shall be suitable for its special needs but consistent with the guidelines.

Implementation of rule 3359-20-03.7 of the Administrative Code: Regular faculty hired to begin employment on or after July 1, 2001 will be subject to the procedures and criteria of rule 3359-20-03.7 as changed and approved by the board of Trustees to be effective in 2001. Further, they will be held to academic unit guidelines and criteria resulting from the new rule. The certificates of appointment will include a statement regarding the implementation of this rule.

All academic units shall submit their guidelines and criteria to the Senior Vice President and Provost for review and approval by December 15, 2001.

Timelines as provided in the new rule shall be instituted for all regular faculty beginning March of 2002.

Procedures for reappointment shall be instituted for all probationary faculty beginning March of 2002.

Procedures for tenure and/or promotion, including the college wide review committees, but not including external review, shall be instituted for regular faculty beginning March 2002.

External review shall be instituted for all regular faculty applying for tenure and/or promotion beginning March of 2003.

(A) Definition of regular faculty

- (1) For the purposes of reappointment, tenure, and promotion, regular faculty are defined as follows.
 - (a) The regular faculty is composed of all full-time faculty with titles of distinguished professor, professor, associate professor, assistant professor. Members in these ranks are eligible to be awarded indefinite tenure. All regular faculty below the rank of distinguished professor are eligible for promotion to a higher rank.
 - (b) Members of the regular faculty generally have a full range of responsibilities to academic units including teaching, research, scholarship and other creative professional work; service to department, college, and university; and public service.
- (B) Nature of appointment of regular faculty
 - (1) Unless the university has awarded tenure or a fixed-term contract, all appointments of full-time regular faculty are on an annual, temporary, or probationary basis, renewable each academic year at the discretion of the university.
 - (2) The board of trustees normally appoints all regular faculty members for an initial period of one academic year. In some cases, appointments for a period of more or less than one academic year may be made, as in the case of initial appointments at midyear or emergency one semester appointments.
 - (a) Upon appointment every faculty member receives from the secretary of the board of trustees a certificate or letter of appointment as regular or auxiliary faculty, stating the rank or designation appropriate to the faculty member's status, annual salary or periodic salary if part-time, and length of appointment.
 - (b) Academic year and vacations. The academic year begins on the first day of classes in the fall semester and continues through spring semester commencement. Regular faculty members on an academic year contract shall be expected to be on duty during fall and spring semesters, continuing through the date that grades are due, and shall be entitled to all academic vacations during that period, but shall not earn or accrue any other vacation credits. Regular faculty and designated others with academic rank serving on a twelve-month contract shall have twenty-two days of vacation to be accrued and used in accordance with the vacation policy in rule 3359-11-03 of the Administrative Code.
 - (3) Without limiting the authority of the board of trustees as conferred and defined by law to act in such matters upon its own motion, the following principles and rules shall govern full-time regular faculty appointments and tenure:

- (a) Assistant professors, associate professors, professors, and distinguished professors shall be appointed by the board of trustees upon recommendation of the senior vice president and provost.
- (C) Probationary periods of regular faculty.
- (1) All non-tenured regular faculty are subject to annual reappointment following their initial appointment. Reappointments shall be carried out according to procedures outlined in rule 3359-20-03 of the Administrative Code and faculty manual.
 - (2) Faculty may serve either on annual appointment or on indefinite tenure, according to the following provisions:
 - (a) Faculty in a professorial rank may be granted indefinite tenure, that is, they are appointed for an indefinite term without the necessity of reappointment each year. An assistant professor, associate professor, or professor may be granted tenure not later than the end of the sixth year of active service in professorial rank at the university of Akron subject to conditions outlined in paragraphs (C)(a)(i), (C)(a)(ii), and (C)(a)(iii) of this rule.
 - (i) If tenure is granted, it shall be effective either at the beginning of the academic year of service after which the candidate applied, or as specified in the certificate of appointment issued by the board of trustees.
 - (ii) If at the end of six years in professorial rank, indefinite tenure has not been received, notice shall be given that employment terminates at the end of the seventh year of service.
 - (iii) Faculty hired after Friday of week seven of the fall semester may apply for tenure and/or promotion in either the tenth or twelfth semester of service, and tenure, if granted, will be effective in either the twelfth or fourteenth semester of service.
 - (b) In cases where there are clearly extenuating circumstances, the probationary period may be extended by one year provided that it is initiated by the candidate, recommended by the appropriate dean, and approved by the senior vice president and provost.
 - (c) Tenure may be granted before the sixth year in a professorial rank contingent upon the candidate's successful completion of the following criteria.

- (i) The candidate shall have completed at least two years of active service at the university of Akron before application for early tenure can be made.
- (ii) At a minimum, the candidate must meet the academic unit criteria for tenure.
- (iii) The academic unit tenure committee shall vote to determine if the candidate may apply for early tenure.

A candidate may apply for early tenure only once. Should tenure be denied, the candidate shall complete the six year probationary period before making reapplication for tenure.

- (d) In exceptional circumstances, the board of trustees may grant indefinite tenure upon initial appointment to scholars who are nationally or internationally recognized and only upon the affirmative recommendation of the tenure committee of the academic unit of primary appointment, the dean, the senior vice president and provost, and the president.
 - (e) Regular faculty who hold the rank of assistant professor may be awarded tenure only if they are granted promotion to associate professor at the same time, except in rare and compelling circumstances.
 - (f) Regular faculty who hold rank beyond that of assistant professor but without tenure, may seek and be awarded tenure without promotion.
 - (g) A full-time appointment for two semesters shall equal one year of active service. Summer sessions or leaves without compensation granted for one-half or more of any semester may not be counted toward the probationary period for tenure. Faculty improvement program leaves count toward the probationary period for tenure.
 - (i) A candidate's application for indefinite tenure shall normally be initiated after ten semesters of active service.
 - (ii) Faculty hired after Friday of week seven of the fall semester may apply for tenure either in their tenth or twelfth semester of active service, and tenure, if granted, will be effective in either the twelfth or fourteenth semester of service.
- (3) Notification of appointment, reappointment, tenure, and promotion of regular faculty.
- (a) The board of trustees usually acts upon recommendations for appointment, reappointment, promotion, and the granting of indefinite tenure at its April meeting.

- (b) Recommendations for appointment, reappointment, promotion, and the granting of indefinite tenure may be considered at other board of trustees' meetings as appropriate.
- (c) The appointment, reappointment, tenure, and promotion of regular faculty is subject to the approval of the board of trustees of the university of Akron. No officer, dean, committee, or other such entity shall have the authority to employ, set the compensation or other terms of employment except the board of trustees. All offers of employment shall be subject to this condition.
- (d) Following board of trustees' approval, the secretary of the board of trustees shall send a certificate of appointment detailing the agreement reached between the faculty member and the university. It shall include an endorsement of acceptance that the faculty member shall sign and return to the secretary of the board of trustees within the time period stipulated.

In the event a faculty member adds or deletes terms to the certificate of appointment, or fails to sign or return the endorsement, the secretary of the board of trustees shall submit the issue to the board of trustees at their next regular meeting for consideration of rescinding the certificate of appointment.

(D) Procedures for appointment of regular faculty.

- (1) For purposes of appointment the term "academic unit" is defined as one of the following:
 - (a) A department or school where faculty hold a primary appointment
 - (b) A college without departments where faculty hold a primary appointment.
- (2) After the senior vice president and provost has approved a regular faculty position, the academic unit shall form a search committee and appoint a committee chair. Academic unit guidelines shall include procedure for the search process.
 - (a) The search committee shall have a minimum of three members from the regular faculty from within the academic unit.
 - (b) In academic units without sufficient faculty to form the committee, faculty shall be appointed from outside the academic unit from within the college.
- (3) The search committee shall develop a search plan and execute the plan in conformity with academic unit guidelines and all university regulations. The dean and the senior vice president and provost and others as required by university policy shall approve the plan.

- (4) Academic unit approval of candidates
 - (a) The process of initial appointment is defined as a deliberative process. Therefore, those eligible who do not participate in or attend the deliberations are not permitted to vote. Individual unit's guidelines may allow for absentee ballots in extenuating circumstances for persons who have been participants in the deliberations.
 - (b) After the completion of the interview process, the regular faculty of the academic unit shall select by secret ballot a candidate to recommend for appointment. A simple majority is required. The academic unit may recommend more than one candidate in priority order.
 - (i) In academic units with departments, the department chair shall vote as a member of the regular faculty.
 - (ii) The dean shall not vote as a member of the regular faculty.
 - (a) In the school of law, the American Bar Association (ABA) standards shall apply if the standard is in conflict with the above rule.
 - (c) In academic units with departments, the department chair shall forward the recommendation to the dean. Department chairs shall not provide a separate recommendation.
 - (d) In academic units without departments, the chair of the search committee shall forward the recommendation to the dean.
- (5) If the dean approves the recommendation, he/she shall transmit the faculty recommendation and his/her recommendation to the senior vice president and provost. If the dean does not support the faculty recommendation, he/she shall call a meeting of the academic unit faculty to discuss the reasons for not supporting the recommendation. If the discussion does not change the dean's position about the recommended candidate, the faculty shall make a new recommendation that could include that no candidate be appointed.
- (6) If the senior vice president and provost approves the recommendation, the candidate may be contacted and offered employment at the university of Akron pending the approval of the board of trustees.
- (7) The department chair, school director, or the dean in colleges without departments shall provide a copy of the academic unit reappointment, tenure, and promotion guidelines and criteria to all newly appointment regular faculty.

(E) Termination of appointment of regular faculty

- (1) The board of trustees may terminate the appointment of a regular faculty member not on indefinite tenure. The date of notice from the dean shall be the effective date of such notice of termination and shall be provided by:
 - (a) Not later than March 1 of the first academic year of service, if the appointment expires at the end of that year; or, if a one-year appointment terminates during an academic year, at least three months in advance of its termination.
 - (b) Not later than December 15 of the second academic year of service, if the appointment expires at the end of that year.
 - (c) At least twelve months before the expiration of an appointment after two or more years in the institution.
- (2) The board of trustees may terminate the appointment of a regular faculty member on indefinite tenure for cause. The faculty member may request a hearing on the reasons for dismissal before the board of trustees or the faculty senate, or both.
 - (a) Except in the case of conduct involving moral turpitude, public safety, gross inefficiency, willful and persistent violations of board of trustee rules, convictions relative to Ohio Revised Code sections 3345.22 and 3345.23, and convictions of sex offenses defined as felonies, a faculty member on indefinite tenure shall be given one years notice of termination for cause.
 - (b) Except in the case of conduct involving moral turpitude, public safety, gross inefficiency, willful and persistent violations of board of trustee rules, convictions relative to Ohio Revised Code sections 3345.22 and 3345.23, and convictions of sex offenses defined as felonies, a faculty member not on indefinite tenure shall be given notice in accordance with paragraph (E) (1) of this rule.
- (3) Nothing herein contained shall prevent the board of trustees from terminating an appointment in case of retrenchment necessitated by financial exigency or the termination of a program or function. See rule 3359-20-03.9 of the Administrative Code.

- (4) Candidate files shall include at least:
- (a) A current vita
 - (b) Narrative statement by the candidate addressing the meeting of university-wide and academic unit criteria
 - (c) A table of contents of materials included in the file; the table of contents shall be amended to reflect any additions or deletions to the file.

- (5) Review of the faculty for reappointment, tenure, and promotion shall originate only in the academic unit where the faculty member holds his/her primary appointment. See rule 3359-20-038 of the Administrative Code for procedures governing joint appointments.
- (6) Each academic unit shall have a set of separate criteria for faculty evaluation for purposes of reappointment, tenure, and promotion. All operative academic unit criteria will be available in the academic unit, the office of the dean of the college, and the office of the senior vice president and provost.
- (a) All academic unit guidelines shall comply with the faculty manual.
 - (i) All academic unit guidelines shall enumerate the specific materials that are to be included in the candidate's reappointment, tenure, and promotion files.
 - (b) In case of conflict, the faculty manual supercedes all other guidelines.
 - (c) The criteria prepared by each academic unit must be formally approved by two-thirds of the regular faculty of that unit. The college dean and the senior vice president and provost shall also formally approve the criteria before it becomes rule.
 - (d) Subsequent reviews of the criteria may be initiated by no fewer than one third of the faculty members of the academic unit faculty, the college dean, or the senior vice president and provost.
- (7) The composition of the reappointment, tenure and promotion committees is defined in 3359-20-03.7 paragraphs (G)(2), (H)(2), (I)(2), (J)(2), (K)(2), (L)(2), and (M)(2) of this rule.
- (8) Reappointment, tenure, and promotion committees must contain a quorum in order to conduct business. For the purpose of reappointment, tenure, and promotion of the regular faculty, a quorum is defined as two-thirds of the eligible members. In the case where there are fewer than six eligible members, a quorum is defined to be at least three members. The college faculty shall formulate rules to add committee members from outside the academic unit if there are fewer than three eligible faculty members in the academic unit to form the committee. These rules shall be included in the procedures of the college or school.

- (9) The processes of reappointment, tenure, and promotion for the regular faculty are deliberative processes. Eligible committee members who do not participate in or attend the deliberations shall not be permitted to vote.
 - (a) To be eligible to vote, a member shall review candidate-submitted materials and shall attend all committee meeting(s) during which the candidate is discussed, subject to the exception in paragraph (C)(9)(b) of this rule.
 - (b) The committee may permit a member who has not attended all meetings but who has otherwise substantially met the participation standards of paragraph (F)(9)(a) of this rule to vote, by a majority vote of members present and voting. The reason for the exception shall be included in the committee recommendation.
 - (c) Unit guidelines may allow for absentee ballots in extenuating circumstances for persons who are otherwise eligible to vote. The committee may determine eligibility for an absentee ballot by a majority vote of members present and voting. Extenuating circumstances include death in the immediate family, serious illness, and inability to attend due to events beyond one's control. The nature of the extenuating circumstances and the vote shall be included in the committee recommendation.
- (10) For the purposes of reappointment, tenure, and promotion for the regular faculty, a simple majority vote in the affirmative, at the minimum, is necessary for adoption. Academic unit guidelines may determine individual unit requirements for a minimum affirmative vote beyond a simple majority. When there is a tie vote, the motion is rejected. While it is the duty of every member who has an opinion on a question to participate in these important deliberations, to arrive at an informed opinion, and to express it by his or her vote, he or she cannot be compelled to do so. He or she may prefer to abstain from voting, fully realizing that the effect is the same as if he or she voted on the prevailing side. Abstentions are not counted in the number of votes cast and are considered blank ballots. However, they are included in the report. For example, a vote of three positive, one negative and seven abstentions represents a seventy-five per cent positive vote and would be reported: three positive, one negative, seven abstentions.
- (11) For purposes of voting on any reappointment, tenure, and promotion matter, faculty shall voluntarily remove themselves from any discussion, voting, or participation that would influence voting on reappointment, tenure, and promotion matters when the candidate is:

- (a) A member of that faculty member's immediate family (e.g. spouse, son, daughter, or other family member residing in that family member's household). (See conflict of interest policy paragraphs (B)(26) and (H)(5) of 3359-11-17 of the Administrative Code.)
 - (b) A member of that faculty member's extended family (e.g. siblings, parents, grandparents, cousins, uncles, aunts, or other next of kin). (See conflict of interest policy paragraphs (B)(26) and (H)(5) of 3359-11-17 of the Administrative Code.)
 - (c) For any other person where there would exist the appearance of conflict of interest or impropriety. (See conflict of interest policy rule 3359-11-17 of the Administrative Code.)
- (12) All colleges shall have college-wide tenure and/or promotion review committees. The college wide review committees shall provide a separate and independent recommendation to each candidate for tenure and/or promotion. The order of recommendations are sequential, not hierarchical. The tenure and promotion guidelines for each college shall include procedures for constituting college-wide review committees.
- (a) In colleges without departments that constitute tenure and promotion committees as committees of the whole tenured faculty, the tenure and/or promotion committee shall also operate as the college-wide review committee at the time of the initial meetings.
 - (b) In colleges with departments, and colleges without departments that establish separate tenure and/or promotion committees, the college-wide review committees shall be composed of no fewer than five members elected from the tenured faculty of the college. Each college shall develop guidelines for the election process and the voting process, including guidelines for replacing members unable to serve.
 - (c) A committee member from the department of the candidate being considered shall be recused and not vote.
 - (d) Members of the college-wide review committees shall meet the following criteria:
 - (i) Members of the college-wide tenure review committees shall be tenured faculty members.

- (ii) Members of the college-wide promotion-to-associate-professor review committee shall be tenured faculty holding the rank of associate professor or higher. - (i) That the candidate has satisfactorily met all approved tenure and/or promotion criteria established by the university and the academic unit
 - (ii) That the departmental tenure and/or promotion committee and the department chair have followed all approved procedures in their evaluation of the candidate
 - (iii) That the tenure and/or promotion committee and the department chair recommendations of the candidate are consistent with the goals of the academic unit as stated in the academic unit guidelines.
- (f) The College wide review committees shall not evaluate the merits of departmental guidelines or criteria.
- (g) If procedural error or inadequate consideration is identified, the irregularity shall be reported to the dean for action.
- (h) The college-wide review committee's written recommendation shall include in its findings that paragraphs (F)(12)(e)(i) to (F)(12)(e)(iii) of this rule have been addressed.
- (i) In colleges with separate college-wide review committees, if the committee's recommendation is not consistent with the recommendations from the tenure and/or promotion committee, or from the department chair, the committee recommendation shall explain those inconsistencies.

- (ii) In colleges with no separate college-wide review committee, the recommendation from the committee of the whole shall explicitly include findings on paragraphs (F)(12)(e)(i) to (F)(12)(e)(iii) of this rule.
- (i) The college-wide review committee shall forward its recommendation to the dean, with copies to the department chair and the candidate.
- (13) "Robert's Rules of Order," in the most recent edition, shall be accepted as the authority on all questions of parliamentary procedure not determined by the faculty manual. In any conflict between the faculty manual and "Robert's Rules of Order," the faculty manual takes precedence.
