

2022-23 Parent In College Form

This form must be accompanied by the 2022-23 Special Circumstance Request Form, available here: www.uakron.edu/finaid/forms

U.S. Department of Education regulations do not allow families to report parent enrollment in college when completing the FAFSA. However, the regulations state that institutions may consider adjusting this information through the professional judgment (or special circumstance) process.

If a parent meets the conditions below, the University of Akron will consider adjusting the student's FAFSA. Adjusting for full-time parent enrollment often lowers students' Expected Family Contribution (EFC) and increases financial need but does not always result in increased need-based assistance.
