As you know, when you applied for admission, you signed the following certification statement:

"...I certify that to the best of my knowledge the information herein is true. I understand that any misrepresentation of facts on this application could be cause for refusal of admission, cancellation of admission, or suspension or dismissal from the University if discovered subsequently. I acknowledge that I have a continuing duty to inform the School of Law as to any relevant information or change in circumstances that relate to any of these questions of which I became aware after the date of my signature below."

Character, Fitness, and Bar Exam Clearance

All law schools are obligated to ensure that their law students have the necessary fitness and character to be lawyers. If you answer any of these questions affirmatively, you must provide an explanation, which must include the information outlined below. You may attach this statement of explanation to your application electronically or e-mail it separately to lawstudentaffairs@uakron.edu.

You have a duty to be truthful and accurate as well as a duty to reveal all information even if you do not have complete documentation. You need to disclose details of the result of any criminal charges. Even if the charges were dismissed, adjudication was withheld, a conviction was reversed, a conviction was set aside, a conviction was vacated, a conviction was expunged, or the record sealed, you must provide disclosure. Contrary advice by legal counsel does not exempt you from this requirement. The charges of driving under the influence of alcohol, driving under the influence of drugs, and reckless driving must be disclosed as criminal charges.

Your answers to these questions are confidential and are limited to a determination of your character and fitness to practice law. You are under a continuing obligation to notify the Admissions Office of any changes in your answers to these questions up until the time of your enrollment. Once enrolled, you are under a continuing obligation to notify the Assistant Dean of Student Affairs in a timely fashion of any changes in your answers to these questions.

DIRECTIONS: Review and answer QUESTIONS 1 - 12 with "YES" or "NO" as you did on your original application to law school AND include responses from any previously submitted amendment form. THIS AMENDMENT FORM WILL NOT BE REVIEWED UNLESS EVERY QUESTION HAS BEEN ANSWERED.
Incomplete forms will be returned unprocessed to your UA Email.
